An Old Soldier of 90 Had Some Coffee

An Old Soldier of 90 Had Some Coffee Experience.

An old soldier's wife described her coffee experience as follows: "My husband and I have been accustomed to the use of tea and coffee for a very great many years, and we are wery fond of the coffee.

"Some time ago we received from a dear friend in St. Louis a Christmas box that included a package of Postum. I prepared some without reading directions and my husband safat; O, nonsense, this tastes just like the crust water that was one of the luxuries They allowed to invalids 80 years ago. Then I looked up the directions, made the Postum as it should be made and we both found it delicious.

"My husband is a broken-down soldier and was a dyspeptic and suffered from severe headaches, but from the time we commenced to drink Postum we have not taken a cup of tea or coffee, During the hot weather we have eaten no meat, depending for food upon Grape-Nuts, My dear husband's headaches have disappeared since we left off the coffee and began Postum, and I find myself mentally stronger and much better able to concentrate my thoughts than for several years past. Husband has a good appetite now and nothing disturbs his stomach.

"I believe that when methers come to pay more attention to their children's diet there will be more health and happiness in the world and in domestic life generally. Little by little this change must come.

"Yours wery sincerely for all that persame takes to bestly and headaches."

Counsel Says Strike Does Not Endanger Their Rights.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

Manchester is quietly watching the strike situation, and the progress either way is being looked upon with interest.

Counsel for the Passenger and Power Company gaid last night that there is nothing in the franchise of the company that compels them to run cars under the present condition of affairs.

"The company is going to put cars on as soon as it can," said an efficial, "and it is absurd to say that the Council can take our franchise away from us at this time, and for this reason."

Travel between the two cities continues to be on the ragged edge, and only those whose business calls them to Richmond go to that city.

No trouble of any kind has arisen by reason of the strike, and affairs in police and all other circles are quieter than for a long time.

WAS NOT DRAMATIC

Porter Who Misunderstood the Order Given Him.

Given Him.

A gentleman in one of the popular restaurants of the city was telling a good story to some friends last night. He said that a few days ago he gave one of the porters a ten dollar note and told him to buy some Bljou tickets, and in addition he gave hira a dime with instructions to buy a dramatic mirror. The negro bought the tickets and returned the change all right, but he appealed for further orders as to the mirror. "What sort of a mirror did you say you wanted, boss?" was the guileless question. "The negro said he fully understood, and went off and shortly returned with a small package securely wrapped, In it was a small looking grass. In handing it to the guest he said, "Boss, Mr. Cohen says dis is de best he can do for ten cents." The gentleman so greatly enjoyed the joke that he forgot he ever wanted the theatrical paper.

The Jenkens building will probably be completed by August 1st.

The above beautiful story was sent us in a big, official envelope, and we were glad to get it, for with the street cars stopped we have not had the chance to get around among our friends to gather bright things that fall from their lips. We can't see why it is that because we had to take a ride around on the car yesterday, just to see what was going on in Fulton, we were called a "scab" by somebody or other, and various others. We had to take that trip because it was our line of business, and we didn't like to walk way down there.

We were just about to say something when Jack again told us he had "just went through," and it was up to somebody, so we had another round of clams and walked home.

We are much obliged; we thank you, and we have to say that we have enough cigars to last for one week, for Mr. J. Munn has presented us with his compliments, a cigar, with a Havana motherhubbard weighing one-half pound to the inch.

We shall start smoking it on Sunday on the trip to Beach Park, and we will give duily matiness all next week, so that when we get into the lion's den at the circus on July Fourth we will be equal to the occasion.

The membership of Laurel Street Meth-

The membership of Laurel Street Methodist Church will observe "Parsonage Day" to-morrow, and doubtless a large congregation will attend the services. An offering will be made by the members and friends of the church towards another payment on their handsome parsonage. The pastor, Dr. Henry E. Johnson, will speak in the morning on "A Homeless Preacher," and at night he will preach on "Worman and the Church."

A series of gospe tent meetings will commence on Sunday night, June 21st, at the magnificent tent pitched on the Marshall school lot, corner of Twentieth and Marshall Streets. These services will be conducted by the Rev. C. T. Potma, recently of Chicago, but for some time past doing Christian work in the neglected montain regions of Virginia. A distinctive feature of these meetings will be the gospel in song, as rendered by Mr. Potma, with autoharp and guitar accompaniments. Services begin at 3 P. M. each night during the week. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Dr. Witherspoon has so far recovered from his severe cold that he will occupy his pulpit to-morrow, both morning and at night. The Doctor will take for his morning subject, "The Visions of a Soul," and at night his subject will be "Spiritual Receptive."

of Nevada, has given up her dressmaking of Novada, has given up her dressmaking establishment here after a futile effort of two years' hard work for success. Miss Stowart was married to Lieutenant Hooker, of the army, but the marriage was not a happy one, and she secured a divorce. She afterwards took charge of her father's stock farm in Loudoun county, Va. She showed a marked ability as a farmer, transforming the rather dilaptated establishment into a model farm and paying off a large part of the debt oncumbering it.

During her experiment Miss Stewart kept in touch with fashionable society, giving house parties composed of well known New York and Washington people. She gave up the farm and came to Newport a couple of years ago.

THE FUNERAL OF REV. RICHARD WELLS

Obsequies Were Attended by Four or Five Thousand Persons.

Between five and seven thousand people, it is estimated, were present yester-

Ebenezer Baptist Church.
During the long service, extending through four hours, thousands of people who could not crowd into the overpacked church stood patiently outside and awaited the appearance of the cortege. When the exercises finally draw to a close and the party came out, it halted at the church door and a photograph of the scene was made. Then the long line of forty-eight hacks wended its way of forty-eight backs wended its way through the city, across James River, to Manchester, where the interment was made. Once again on its route the procession halted-while it stood on the bridge, with the ruehing waters beneath. Here a second picture was taken. It was, to say the least, a unique and striking occurrence.

The tuneral ritos began at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and did not conclude hefore 5. The programme announced was carried out in every detail. The church was filled to its utmost capacity. The great majority of the people could not get in at all and they had to stand outside, which they did for four hours. Practically all of the colored pastors of the city, regardless of denomination, were present.

The service opened with music by the choir, after which introductory exercises were conducted by the Rev. W. K. Stokes, master of ceremonies. A hymn was sune, led by Rev. W. T. Johnson, and then the scripture losson was read by W. M. Moss, and prayer made by Rev. R. V. Peyton, of Sixth Mount Zion, Music and the reading of resolutions and telegrams followed. The sermon was preached by the Rev. A. Binga, Jr. Five minute talks were then made as follows: By Rev, H. H. White, Rev. Wells as our pastor; by W. L. Taylor, D.
